Responsibilities

Together with the Executive Director, the Membership and Programs Manager's duties will include:

- Efficiently process all applicants for membership in the Federation and manage all documents related to the screening process;
- Provide timely, accurate, and helpful support to Federation screening committees and other committees as needed;
- Communicate directly with applicants, Fair Trade Federation members, and other stakeholders about Federation activities;
- Take an active role in planning the annual Fair Trade Federation members' conference. Travel to annual conference is required, with additional domestic travel as needed;
- Plan educational programs for Fair Trade Federation members and other stakeholders, including development of the Federation's online Fair Trade University and monthly webinars;
- Manage the design and content of the Federation's quarterly newsletter and other publications;
- Support the ongoing development and maintenance of the Fair Trade Federation website and electronic resources, including social media;
- Support the fulfillment of the Fair Trade Federation Strategic Plan;
- Oversee 1-2 Federation interns per semester; and
- Other administrative duties as assigned.

Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree in business, non-profit management, sustainable development, or related fields
- Demonstrated excellence and professionalism in oral and written communication

Demonstrated excellence and professionalism in managing multiple projects simultaneously
Commitment to the Federation's values and to creating a just and sustainable economic system
Experience with a Fair Trade Organization preferred
Website design, social media, and/or event planning experience preferred

How to apply

To apply, please submit a cover letter, resume, a brief writing sample (4 pages maximum), and at least 3 professional references to the attention of Renee Bowers, Executive Director, Fair Trade Federation, info@fairtradefederation.org.

Executive Director - Voices 4 Delaware Education

Posted on: August 10, 2011

Posted by: Koya Leadership Partners

Description

the opportunity

Voices 4 Delaware Education seeks an inspirational, strategic, and skilled Executive Director to lead and scale a high-impact organization that builds and mobilizes a grassroots movement to ensure that Delaware fulfills the promise of opportunity for all children, especially those for whom educational excellence is least accessible. The Executive Director will build upon a strategic framework developed by the founding board and provide strategic leadership in the implementation of all aspects of the organization's development, growth, and impact. The Executive Director reports to the Board of Directors and will be located in either Wilmington or Dover, Delaware.

The opportunity to lead Voices 4 Delaware Education is exceptional, coming at a time when unprecedented attention and resources are being committed to public education across the nation. Delaware is at the leading edge of this movement, due to widespread support from its public, private and civic leaders. Ranking #1 in the federal Race to the Top competition, Delaware is implementing a bold, comprehensive plan to ensure that all of its students have access to a world-class education and are college- and career-ready. Because of its boldness and complexity, this effort requires the active engagement of parents and community groups to ensure that state, district, and local leaders do not falter in the commitments they have made to Delaware's children.

the organization

Voices 4 Delaware Education is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization with the mission of accelerating and sustaining the transformation of Delaware's public schools and ensuring that every student has access to a world-class education. The Executive Director also will lead a parallel, legally separate 501(c)(4) organization, Voices 4 Delaware Education Action Fund. These organizations will support, advocate for, and mobilize public engagement around policies and practices that:

- Set high standards and provide a rigorous curriculum for all students
- Expand high-quality early childhood education
- Develop and support highly effective teachers
- Empower great principals to lead their schools
- Encourage innovation and require accountability
- Establish a simple and equitable funding system
- Engage families and communities

The organization's policy framework is based upon Vision 2015, Delaware's nationally acclaimed plan for school transformation developed in 2006 by a coalition of public, private, and civic leaders. Vision 2015 laid the foundation for Delaware's #1 rated selection in the federal Race to the Top competition and remains a framework for comprehensive, coherent education reform.

the position

The Executive Director's responsibilities include:

- Building and scaling a statewide grassroots movement to further Voices 4 Delaware Education's goals and mission
- Developing and strengthening a range of partnerships with key stakeholders, including parent organizations, educators, elected officials, school district leaders, civic and business leaders, and others
- Developing and executing political and advocacy strategies, specifically through Voices' for Delaware Education Action Fund, including the election of education reform champions into positions across the state
- Hiring, training, and managing an exceptional team
- Serving as a compelling and inspirational spokesperson for the organization
- Working closely with Board of Directors to meet benchmark metrics and continually refine strategic vision and plans
- Developing and executing successful 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) fundraising strategies
- Ensuring the overall strategic direction and effectiveness of the organization, delivering against commitments established with the Board of Directors

qualifications & experience

- At least 7 years of senior leadership experience in developing, organizing, and managing effective, large-scale advocacy and grassroots initiatives
- Strong organizational leadership skills, notably in board relations, staff management, fiscal oversight, and the implementation of annual program plans
- A track record of achieving ambitious growth in both scale and impact
- Demonstrated fundraising success at state and national levels
- Exceptional relationship building and communication skills, including the ability to work with a wide range of constituents

Strong knowledge of, and experience with, legislative, regulatory, electoral, and lobbying processes, knowledge of the political landscape in Delaware preferred

Knowledge of the region, including an understanding of education issues important to Delaware and a well-developed professional network

Ability to effectively and persuasively represent a vision and mission to a wide range of stakeholder groups

An entrepreneurial spirit, keen intellect, and exceptional oral and written presentation skills

Deep, authentic commitment to Voices 4 Delaware Education's mission and goals and a desire to help ensure that all children have access to excellent public education

Ability to travel regularly throughout Delaware and periodically elsewhere in the nation

compensation

& benefits

Salary is competitive and commensurate with experience.

Mid-Atlantic Regional Association Coastal Ocean Observing System (MARACOOS) Stakeholder Liaison

Posted on: July 22, 2011

Posted by: University of Delaware

Description

The Mid-Atlantic Regional Association Coastal Ocean Observing System (MARACOOS), a regional non-profit organization seeks a dynamic leader to serve as Stakeholder Liaison. The MARACOOS mission—to “seek, discover, share, and apply new knowledge and understanding of our coastal ocean”—is supported by its growing and maturing operational regional ocean observing network in the Mid-Atlantic region of the United States.

Job Description: The Stakeholder Liaison serves as a vital link of engagement between MARACOOS and its constituent groups in the theme areas of (1) maritime safety, (2) ecological decision support, (3) water quality, (4) coastal inundation, and (5) offshore energy. The MARACOOS Stakeholder Liaison is responsible for expanding information dissemination facilitated by technology, facilitating synthesis, integration, and translation of MARACOOS products into appropriate end uses for stakeholders, and formalizing a system for stakeholder feedback. The ultimate goal is to shorten the process of research to operations and in return, inform research via operations. To accomplish this goal and related tasks, the Stakeholder Liaison will engage the MARACOOS Users Council in identifying data, data products, and decision model needs, as well as serving as staff to the Council. The Stakeholder Liaison will undertake proposal writing when necessary to support targeted and specific stakeholder requests. Frequent travel will be required.

Required Expertise and Skills: The successful candidate must:

Serve as linchpin between MARACOOS marine and coastal ocean observing operations and users of MARACOOS products.

Plan, develop, implement, and evaluate a comprehensive scope of work with established and/or prospective constituents in the five theme areas of MARACOOS.

Work closely with the Users Council in developing a forward looking vision and implementation plan to enhance the effectiveness of MARACOOS in the region from Cape Cod to Cape Hatteras.

Facilitate communication and transfer of knowledge across all interested parties in MARACOOS.

Conduct applied research and demonstration projects as determined by the Users Council as high priorities.

Initiates new sources of program funds by responding to RFP solicitations from government agencies, non-government organizations, and other funding agencies.

Conduct group seminars, workshops, webinars, and conferences to transfer information, create awareness, and improve dialogue among MARACOOS constituent groups.

Work as part of a team with other outreach colleagues in IOOS.

Qualifications

The successful candidate must have:

A Masters degree and/or equivalent experience with at least 5 years in increasingly responsible positions. An advanced degree in Marine Sciences or Business or related disciplines is preferable;

Experience with and understanding of Integrated Ocean Observing Systems (IOOS) and knowledge of engagement/outreach methods.

Experience with fundraising; preferably with “non-traditional” sources (e.g. foundations, business and industry, etc.).

Effective oral and written communication skills.

Proven ability to independently plan and organize effective marine and coastal ocean science engagement and outreach activities.

Effective human relations skills and ability to maintain professional rapport with diverse public and private sector groups throughout the MARACOOS footprint.

Knowledge of computer software programs distance presentation methods.

Salary range: Commensurate with experience.

Position funding: Funding is available for 12 months with the anticipation of additional funding which will extend the position to 2016.

Continued employment in the position will be contingent on individual performance and the successful growth and evolution of MARACOOS funding.

Application Date: Until vacancy is filled

To apply: Please submit cover letter addressing skills and qualifications, curriculum vitae, and three professional references (name, title, address, and phone number)

Visit our website at : <http://maracoos.org/>

Employment offers will be conditioned upon successful completion of a criminal background check. A conviction will not necessarily exclude you from employment.

The University of Delaware is an Equal Opportunity Employer which encourages applications from Minority Group Members and Women.
